

Success of America Due to Education

This the Opinion of Prince Pu Lon of China in an Address.

CHICAGO, May 17.—Prince Lu Pun of China has made an address in Chinese to an audience of several hundred students at the University of Chicago. His remarks were interpreted by Gen. Woon, a Yale graduate. The Prince said in part:

"From the time I landed at San Francisco, during my entire visit to your country, I have been most surprised to find that every man and woman in America is educated. This I believe is the basis of the success of the American people."

Gen. Woon also spoke, making a plea for the easy admission to the United States of Chinese students. He said: "One-fourth of the Chinese students who were in this country when I was in college at Yale have since fallen in battle, shot in front. To get shot in front was something they learned in America."

Highwaymen Hold Up a Mail Wagon

Accidental Discharge of a Revolver Frustrated Their Plans and They Escape.

CHICAGO, May 17.—Three highwaymen attempted to rob a United States registered mail wagon early today near the Chicago & Northwestern railroad station. The accidental discharge of a revolver frustrated their plans and they escaped after a street duel with the police.

It was this wagon that Marks, Van Dine and Neidermeyer, the car barn bandits, planned to rob during their brief career as desperadoes. Their plans miscarried, however. The police believe today's highwaymen were inspired to attempt the daring crime by the story of the men hanged on April 22nd.

Racing News Suddenly Shut Off

Drastic Action to All Classes of Subscribers for Service With Western Union Taken.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Col. Robert C. Clowry, president and general manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, suddenly shut off all service of racing news to all classes of subscribers in this city today. This action of Col. Clowry, taken entirely on his own initiative and without instructions from his board of directors or any pressure from the authorities, was the result of claims recently made public by police officials that the poolrooms of New York city could not exist without the Western Union service. Recently a civil organization, called the City club, made public charges that if the Western Union would assist it the poolroom evil in this city could be overcome.

King Edward Is for Peace

Wishes to See War Between Russia and Japan Quickly Brought to an End.

ST. LOUIS, May 17.—Sir Hugh Gibson, field, president of the World's Press Parliament, in an interview today, said that King Edward is seeking to end hostilities in the far East. He said: "King Edward is for peace. He did not like to see the war between Russia and Japan begin, and wishes to see it brought to an end as soon as possible. When the new British ambassador went to St. Petersburg he carried a message from the King to the czar, suggesting that peace be brought about. This was the first suggestion of peace made. This message from the King has greatly increased his popularity with the masses in England. England at large sympathizes with Japan."

LARGE SUM PAID FOR GOLD SNUFF BOX

LONDON, May 17.—During the Hawkins sale of art objects, a Louis XVI. oval gold snuff box, inlaid with enamel plaques, decorated with classical subjects, was sold for $2250. The total proceeds of the sale to date is $390,000.

Wentz's Father Opposed Marriage

His Action, It Is Alleged, Caused Son to Commit Suicide in Virginia.

BIGSTONE GAP, Va., May 17.—It has developed here that Edward L. Wentz, whose body was found in the mountains near this place and was buried in New York on Saturday last, committed suicide because of his love for Miss Cornelia Brookmire, a beautiful girl whom he had known for several years and to whom he willed the sum of $100,000.

It is now learned that the family has feared ever since young Wentz disappeared last October that he had committed suicide because of the parental opposition to his marriage to Miss Brookmire. In an iron safe belonging to Edward L. Wentz and which was kept sealed until today, has been found his last will and testament, made just before he started on the trip into the woods that ended in his death. This will bequeathed to Miss Brookmire the sum of $100,000, practically his entire estate.

Miss Brookmire is a brunette of 20, the daughter of the late James H. Brookmire, for many years a member of the Board of Trade of St. Louis. That she and Edward Wentz were engaged was known only to the family of Mr. Wentz. It was while visiting here at a small house party given by Mrs. Daniel B. Wentz that she met young Edward Wentz, who was at that time living with his brother.

Their love developed from the first time they met, and when Miss Brookmire left they were engaged. At the first opportunity Edward Wentz introduced his fiancée to his parents in Philadelphia, but while Miss Brookmire was cordially received by them, Edward failed utterly to shake his father's opposition to his marriage. After he had built, at a cost of $10,000, the magnificent home he intended for his bride and had furnished it with the costliest material he could bring from Philadelphia, he was told, it is said, that if he married against his father's will he could no longer expect to hold his position as assistant superintendent of the Stone Gap mines. This decision, it is believed, drove him to suicide.

Starving Out Russians.

SEOUL, May 17.—It is reported that a Japanese force has cornered 300 Russians north of Ando and is endeavoring to starve them out. The only provisions in the possession of the Russians are those secured by forage, and it is expected that the food of the besieged men will soon be exhausted.

Miles Favors Better Roads

General Declares Himself in Sympathy With the Move for Good Highways.

ST. LOUIS, May 17.—In the International Good Roads convention today, the principal speaker was Gen. Nelson A. Miles. He declared himself to be thoroughly in sympathy with the movement for better roads and in his address recommended that 5000 men in the army be used in times of peace as an engineering corps to locate the best and most feasible roads and co-operate with the surveyors of the various States.

Strength and Endurance

Are factors of the greatest success. No person can do full justice to himself without them. In no season of the year are they more easily exhausted than in the spring. We need not discuss the reason for this here. It is enough to say there is one, and that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives strength and endurance, as thousands annually testify.

Irrigation Figures About Colorado

Still Holds First Place Among the Arid States in Extent Irrigated Acreage.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The census bureau in a report on irrigation in Colorado says: "Notwithstanding the unfavorable conditions, the construction of irrigation works in 1902 progressed rapidly, and the year shows a considerable increase in the irrigated area. It is probable, however, that many hundreds of acres reported as irrigated did not receive sufficient water to produce full crops. Colorado still holds first place among the arid States in the extent of its irrigated acreage and in the length of its canals and ditches."

The number of acres to which water was artificially applied in 1902 aggregated 1,744,758, an increase since 1899 of 142,584. There were 19,802 farms thus benefited, and the 588 systems, having a total length of 10,209 miles of main canals and ditches, were constructed at an initial cost of $14,758,967. The average first cost per irrigated acre increased from $7.39 in 1899 to $8.42 in 1902. The average construction cost was $24.66 per system, the average length of canals and ditches being 2.87 miles.
